Photography Policy

Purpose:

The National Rodeo Association (NRA) aims to assist affiliated associations and their committees, Competitors and other bodies in promoting competitive and professional rodeos. The purpose of this Policy is to ensure that photography is performed at rodeos in a safe and professional manner and that the sport is portrayed in an appropriate manner.

Policy Statement:

The underlying principles shall apply to all rodeos affiliated with the National Rodeo Association.

1. Photographers must as a minimum be a financial Associate Member of the NRA.
2. Photographers must inform the NRA Office no later than 2 weeks prior to the rodeo date of your attendance – Only the first 2 photographers that have informed the NRA Office will receive free entry for 1 person (Name of Photographer) attending the Rodeo. This is also subject to the approval of the Committee/Promoter.
3. Photographers must cover all events programmed for the rodeo.
4. Photographers must ensure that any action shots taken and advertised on social media and or business websites are of good quality and portray the competitors and the animals in a professional manner. If there is any doubt, then the photographer should seek the approval of the NRA before publishing.
5. Photographers must wear western attire when entering official/competitor areas.
6. Photographers must supply the NRA with photographs to publish in the bi-monthly Sports News and as required by the NRA to promote the sport of Rodeo.
7. Photographers may be required to attend the NRA Presentation Night at the end of the year at no further cost to NRA.
8. Where the photographers intend to sell the images, they are required to have Public Liability Insurance and provide a copy of the Certificate of Currency to the NRA.
9. Photographers are not to make comments detrimental to the NRA, Board Directors, Committees, Members, Officials or Contractors. If they bring the sport of rodeo into disrepute, they may be subject to disciplinary action.
10. All photos advertised by NRA will accompany photographer logo and the contact details will be advertised in the NRA Sports News.

Implementation:

All photographers wishing to carry out photography at an NRA affiliated rodeo must comply with this Policy and sign below to acknowledge that they agree to comply with this Policy.
