- e) In all the above rodeo classifications junior and/or novice events can only be included if the equivalent senior event is on the programme, the only exception being a full junior rodeo.
- f) The Board of the National Rodeo Association has the right to negotiate special terms for any rodeo affiliation.

The Judge's Decision Is Final

8. Final/Average Payouts and Points

- a) In the case of a final, with prize money of $1000 per event, the money shall be split evenly over the 1st round, the final and the average with points given on the average only.
- b) To be eligible to win prizemoney and points in the average, a competitor must have received a score/time in the round and must compete on all possible head of stock. Where there are not enough scores in the round to fill the required number of positions in the final, competitors can be drawn back into the final, or in the case of rough stock events, they can be placed into the final based on the longest buck off time however they will not be eligible for average money and points.
- c) Rough Stock average winners will be determined by the highest aggregate score on the greatest number of qualified rides.
- d) Time Event average winners will be determined by the fastest aggregate time on the greatest number of qualified runs.
- e) The same head of stock cannot be drawn by a competitor more than once in an average.

9. Arena conditions:

- a) The arena must be considered safe and suitable for a rodeo to be conducted.
- b) The arena must be completely top dressed or ripped to a minimum of 75mm and a maximum of 100mm.
- c) The final decision on cancelling a rodeo or stopping a rodeo due to weather or ground conditions must be done by NRA directors. If the conditions are considered safe contractors must complete their obligations.

If the conditions are unsafe the following conditions apply:

- i) If a rodeo is abandoned before half the programme is concluded competitors will receive full nomination refund.

General Rules

- ii) If a rodeo is abandoned after half the programme is completed half prize money per event will be paid out.
- iii) Team Roping - in the case where the event is not completed, all nomination money will be refunded.

In all the above cases no points will be allocated towards the end of year points.

10. Tie for Event Titles

- a) In the case of a tie in the All Round title, a count back will be conducted using the formula below.

Points to be calculated from all round point award rodeos: -

- b) In the case of a tie for an event title at the finals the competitors will have to take a ride-off or run-off to decide the winner (contestants must qualify on their head of stock). If a tie still exists use formula as per 10 (a) for all rodeos.

11. Chute Boss has the right to:

- a) Fine and scratch a competitor after three (3) calls.
- b) Fine or scratch a competitor after one (1) warning failing to follow directions, fine to be set by NRA Board.

12. Draws:

- d) All time event draws or in the case where a rough stock draw is done on the day of the rodeo, will be openly carried out by two (2) persons appointed by a director or judge. At least one judge on the day must be present.
- e) Rough Stock computer draws will be conducted in the NRA Office.
- f) Misdraws:

- 17. Touching the barrel with the hand to prevent it from falling is permitted as long as the top rim of the barrel has not hit the ground.
- 18. Split sections may be used provided the course has been pre-marked with pegs, and a diagram showing the exact barrel course measurements is available (e.g. in case a peg has been pulled out during harrowing). This diagram shall also be posted or made available for competitors, when split sections are used. The entire barrel course, including starting and finishing line, must be permanently marked until the completion of the entire barrel race. The start and finishing pegs must be in line with, and parallel to, the first and second barrels.

19. A contestant is restricted to one horse for Barrel Racing. The Rodeo committee (organising body) has the right if four (4) or fewer entries to request competitors run twice, in this instance placings would be paid out on the average.
20. Broken Equipment:
  - a. If the equipment fails during the run, and restricts the competitor from completing her run, no re-run will be awarded.
  - b. If the competitor is able to complete the run with broken equipment, then her time will be recorded.
21. Officials shall take all due care to ensure the Arena gate is closed after the competitor enters the Arena to take her run. The gate shall remain closed until the competitor has finished her run and is ready to leave. It is the Barrel Racing Director's responsibility to ensure the gate is closed. In the event of a controlled, manned, and approved start finish alley, competitors may have a running start from this area.
22. Any ground rules are at the discretion of the officials on the day, and will be posted at the secretary's office on the day.
23. Hitting the horse around head, or excessive use of whip/over and under in the Barrel Race may result in disqualification for the duration of the Rodeo at the Judges' and/or Director's discretion. There will be no refund of Entry Fees.
24. Electric Timers:

General Rules for Time Events

- a. Electric timers shall be used wherever possible, plus a minimum of one Manual (hand) timer. Times must be recorded on Judges/Timers sheets to the third decimal place.
- b. If the Electric timers fail to work for more than one half of the contestants in an entire round, the manual time will be used as the official time for all contestants in that round.

25. Stop Watches:

- a. In the case of stop watches being used – Time commences as the horse's nose passes the start/finish line.
- b. In the case of stop watches being used – two (2) clocks must be used. The average time from two (2) clocks is to be the official time. If one clock fails, time will be taken from the one (1) clock. When manual clocks are used, times should be taken to third decimal point.
- c. If there is a difference of more than 0.5 seconds or greater between the two stop watches, the competitor is entitled to a re-run. The competitor must be notified of such a discrepancy by the Timekeeper/Judge as soon as possible before the completion of the event but must not be advised of their time prior to deciding on a re-run.

Ladies Barrel Race Disqualifications

1. Failure to follow the pattern, or for crossing the finish line without completing the correct course.
2. Starting from outside the Arena.

Classifications -

All NRA endorsed officials are required to do at least one (1) event as an official per year to remain on the NRA Endorsed officials list.

Officials officiating at an NRA Affiliated Rodeo to be zero tolerance for alcohol.

Judges /Timekeepers

Judges/timekeepers cannot judge/time keep the event in which they compete on the day. In the case where a judge/Timekeeper is competing, it is his/her responsibility to supply a suitable replacement for the said event on the day. Announcers and/or other officials adjudicating on the day are not considered suitable replacements. i.e. Judge and Announce, Judge and pick-up and Judge and Clown at the same time.

If a replacement cannot be found the judge/timekeeper must honour his/her commitment and judge/time keep the event and forfeit nominations.

Judges/Timekeeper Penalties

First offence – fine.

Any subsequent offence(s) - Automatic suspension from the judge's/timekeepers panel for a period determined by the board.

These penalties shall apply to both parties concerned.

NRA Judges

To qualify to become a judge in any of the below categories a person must complete a minimum of three (3) rodeos in the capacity of a shadow judge. For example: Rough Stock judges to complete three (3).

Sheets for Categories 1 and 3 and time event judges are to complete three (3) shadow judging for Categories 1 and 2. A written test shall also be undertaken by any person applying to be placed on the judges' panel.

Once this qualification period has been completed and the chairman of the judge's panel is satisfied that the person meets the criteria, their name will be submitted before the board for approval.

Classifications -

Should applicant have judged in any other association and feels they are qualified to judge rodeo events, the board of directors may recommend that the applicant be placed on the judge's panel without three (3) shadow sheets, and must complete a written test of the NRA rule book and pass to be eligible as an NRA judge.

If in the opinion of the Chairman of the Judges Panel, at any time, they may deem it necessary to refer the performance of a judge to the board, recommending that the said judge be requested to undertake further training.

Whilst officiating at any NRA affiliated rodeo all officials must have access to an up-to-date NRA Rule Book.

Category 1 - Open Judge
